Sleepy Morning

#5

This morning I was much too sleepy to get out of bed. I went to bed early last night, but I still wasn't ready to get up. My bed was so warm with all the blankets keeping me comfy. It was the weekend, too. There was no reason to rush out of bed. Each time I woke up, I checked the clock. Since there wasn't a lot of noise in the house, I just kept falling back asleep. Finally, I was ready to get up. I climbed out of bed and brushed my teeth. Then I went downstairs, but my family wasn't around. Everyone else must've gotten up before me. I looked around for everyone, but no one was downstairs. I peeked out the windows, but no one was outside in our backyard. I went to the front of the house, but I still couldn't find anyone. I snuck upstairs without making a sound. I peeked in all the other bedrooms. Everyone was still sleeping! I was the first one up. I knew just what to do. I snuck back downstairs and turned on the computer. I love playing on the computer, but I always have to share it with my sisters. I sat down and played games until the rest of my family woke up. I guess I wasn't the only one who was comfy in bed!

Treehouse Time

Each day after school, I race home. I try to get home as quick as I can. I get to play in my tree house. It got built this summer and I love it. My mom lets me have my snack in there. Most days, I run inside to drop off my backpack. Then, I grab a snack and take it up to my tree house. My mom's one rule is that I clean up after myself. I can't leave any snacks out. I don't want ants in there. After I eat my snack, I take my trash inside. Then I grab some toys or books. Some days I like to color in there. I sometimes just read a book in there. Other days I like to bring a lot of toys up. Sometimes I even have to take more than one trip up the ladder. When it is time for dinner, I always bring all my things back down. I bring them inside with me. Then while we eat dinner, I tell my mom and dad what I played. They are glad I love the tree house so much. They said that I could even sleep in there someday!

A New Campground

11

“Have we ever been here before?” Maddy asked her mom and dad. They both shook their heads. That’s what Maddy had thought. It looked like a new campground to her. She always got excited when her family visited new spots. Whenever she went to a new campground, she enjoyed exploring everything. Maddy helped her parents set up the tent first. Then, once the tent was all set, she rolled out her sleeping bag. Maddy always enjoyed sleeping in the tent since she had her mom and dad right nearby. If she got scared in the middle of the night, they were right there. Once the tent was up, Maddy explored the forest around their tent. It was getting dark, so Maddy didn’t go far from the tent. Right away, Maddy spotted an owl up in the tree. She could see the owl’s eyes shining in the moonlight. Maddy also heard some rustling nearby, so she looked toward the sound. That’s when she spotted two more eyes shining brightly in the moonlight. The eyes belonged to a raccoon. That was all Maddy found that night since it was nighttime. Maddy was excited to look for more animals when she woke up the next day!

My Own Space

#14

I love being a fish because I get to swim around my own fishbowl all day. I am the only one in my fishbowl which makes me feel pretty special. There is no need for me to share my home with any other fish. It is wonderful to have the space all to myself. I love my owner too because she takes care of me. She feeds me each day and keeps me company while I swim around my home. However, one day everything changed. My owner came up to my fishbowl and smiled at me. She held up a bag with another fish in it. I just stared at the fish while it smiled at me. I didn't like where this was going. She then took the fish and dropped it right into my home. I couldn't believe my owner would do such a thing to me, her special fish. Before, I thought my owner was so nice, but, now, I wasn't sure. I ignored the other fish at first. Then, later that day, I realized the other fish was just like me. We began swimming around the fishbowl together. Turned out there was plenty of room for both of us. It was also nice to have a buddy to chat with while I swam. I guess I'd get used to sharing my space!
